

“river basin” has the same meaning as in section 28(1) of the 2003 Act except that, in the case of a river basin which is partly in Scotland and partly in England, it means the part of that basin which is in Scotland,

“Scottish cross border area” means a flood risk management district which comprises of, or includes, the Scottish part of a river basin (within the meaning of section 28(1) of the 2003 Act) which is partly in Scotland and partly in England, ]<sup>2</sup>

“sub-basin” means an area of land from which all surface run-off water flows through a series of streams, rivers, other watercourses and, as the case may be, lochs to a particular point in a watercourse or loch,

“wetland” means an area of ground the ecological, chemical and hydrological characteristics of which are attributable to frequent inundation or saturation by water.

(2) The Scottish Ministers may by order specify boundaries of any coastal area for the purposes of this Part.

PART 4

FLOOD RISK MANAGEMENT: LOCAL AUTHORITY FUNCTIONS

General power

Law In Force

56 General power to manage flood risk

- (1) A local authority may do anything which it considers—
- (a) will contribute to the implementation of current measures described in any relevant local flood risk management plan,
  - (b) is necessary to reduce the risk of a flood in its area which is likely to—
    - (i) occur imminently, and
    - (ii) have serious adverse consequences for human health, the environment, cultural heritage or economic activity, or

- (c) will otherwise manage flood risk in its area without affecting the implementation of the measures mentioned in paragraph (a).
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), a local authority may in particular—
- (a) carry out any operations to which a flood protection scheme relates (see section 60),
  - (b) carry out any other flood protection work,
  - (c) carry out any temporary works required for the purposes of a flood protection scheme or any other flood protection work,
  - (d) enter into agreements or arrangements with any other person—
    - (i) for the carrying out by that person or by the authority of any work which could be done by the authority under this Part, or
    - (ii) relating to the management by that person of land in a way which can assist in the retention of flood water or slowing the flow of such water,
  - (e) make contributions towards expenditure incurred by any other person doing something which could be done by the authority under this Part,
  - (f) (make payments to any other person in compensation for income lost as a result of entering into agreements or arrangements of the type mentioned in paragraph (d)(ii), and
  - (g) receive from any other person contributions towards expenditure incurred by the authority in exercising any of its functions under this Part.
- (3) Work carried out under this section may be carried out within or outwith the local authority's area.

Law In Force

57 Limits of general power

- (1) The power under section 56 does not enable a local authority to do anything which it is, by virtue of a limiting provision, unable to do.
- (2) In subsection (1), a “limiting provision” is one which—
- (a) prohibits or prevents the local authority from doing anything or limits its powers in that respect, and
  - (b) is expressed in an enactment (whenever passed or made).
- (3) The absence from an enactment of provision conferring any power does not of itself make that enactment a limiting provision.

Law In Force

58 Limits of general power: statutory undertakings

- (1) A local authority may not exercise the power under section 56 in a way which—
- (a) damages any works or property belonging to a statutory undertaker, or
  - (b) interferes with the carrying on of its statutory undertaking, unless the undertaker consents.
- (2) But consent is not required if it is withheld unreasonably.
- (3) It is for the Scottish Ministers to determine any question which arises as to whether consent has been withheld unreasonably, and their decision is final.

Clearance and repair works

Law In Force

59 Duty to carry out clearance and repair works

A local authority must carry out the works described in a schedule prepared by it under section 18 if it considers carrying out the works—

- (a) will contribute to the implementation of current measures described in any relevant local flood risk management plan, or
  - (b) will not affect the implementation of the measures mentioned in paragraph (a).

Flood protection schemes

Law In Force

60 Flood protection schemes

- (1) A flood protection scheme is a scheme by a local authority for the management of flood risk within the authority's area.
- (2) A proposed flood protection scheme must—
  - (a) contain a description of the operations the local authority proposes to carry out,
  - (b) include such maps, plans and specifications as may be specified by regulations by the Scottish Ministers,
  - (c) state how the operations will contribute to the implementation of current measures described in any relevant local flood risk management plan, and
  - (d) inasmuch as they will not so contribute, state the reasons why the local authority considers carrying them out will not affect the implementation of those measures.
- (3) Schedule 2 makes further provision about the making of flood protection schemes.
- (4) The Scottish Ministers may by order amend schedule 2 so as to modify the procedure for making flood protection schemes.
- (5) Before making an order under subsection (4), the Scottish Ministers must consult—
  - (a) every local authority,
  - (b) such bodies appearing to them to be representative of the interests of local authorities as they consider appropriate,
  - (c) SEPA,
  - (d) Scottish Natural Heritage,
  - (e) Scottish Water,
  - (f) the National Park authority for each National Park, and
  - (g) such other persons as they consider appropriate.

61 Orders under the Land Drainage (Scotland) Act 1958

- (1) This section applies where an improvement order affects any land on which operations are proposed to be carried out under a flood protection scheme.
- (2) The flood protection scheme may include proposals to—
  - (a) vary the improvement order by—
    - (i) removing land from the improvement area,

- (ii) removing or rendering ineffective all or any part of the drainage or protective works specified in the improvement order, or
    - (iii) amending, reapportioning or removing any obligations of maintenance imposed on the authorised persons under the improvement order, or
  - (b) revoke the improvement order.
- (3) But the scheme may not include proposals to vary the improvement order so as to impose any new obligations on the authorised persons in respect of operations described in the scheme.
- (4) Where the proposed operations will materially alter drainage works or protective works, the scheme must include proposals to vary the improvement order so as to remove the obligation of maintenance in respect of the part of the drainage works or protective works so altered.
- (5) On commencement of the flood protection scheme, the improvement order is varied or, as the case may be, revoked to the extent specified in the scheme.
- (6) Where an improvement order has been varied or revoked by a flood protection scheme, the local authority must cause a notice of the variation or revocation to be registered in the Land Register of Scotland or recorded in the Register of Sasines (as applicable).
- (7) The Scottish Ministers may by order specify the form and content of a notice under subsection (6).
- (8) In this section—
- “authorised persons” has the meaning given in section 2(2) of the Land Drainage (Scotland) Act 1958 (c.24),
  - “drainage works” has the meaning given in section 18(1) of that Act,
  - “improvement area” has the meaning given in section 1(3) of that Act,
  - “improvement order” has the meaning given in section 1(1) of that Act,
  - “protective works” has the meaning given in section 2(1)(d) of that Act.

62 Registers of flood protection schemes

- (1) Every local authority must keep a register of flood protection schemes.
- (2) A local authority must enter into its register—
- (a) details of each relevant scheme including—
    - (i) a summary of the operations described in the scheme,
    - (ii) a description (by reference to a map) of the land affected by those operations, and
    - (iii) a note of the date on which notice of the scheme is first published under paragraph 1(1)(a) of schedule 2,

- (b) a note of the following in relation to each such scheme—
    - (i) any decision made under paragraph 4(1), 5(1), 7(4), or 9(1) of schedule 2,
    - (ii) the fact that notice has been given to the Scottish Ministers under paragraph 5(5) of that schedule including whether any relevant objector is a local authority or a National Park authority,
    - (iii) the fact that notice has been given of proposed modifications under paragraph 7(5)(a) or 9(3)(a) of that schedule,
  - (c) where such a scheme is confirmed with modifications, the information specified in paragraph (a)(i) and (ii) in relation to the modified scheme, and
  - (d) a note of any suspension of the operation of such a scheme under paragraph 12(6) of schedule 2.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(a), a relevant scheme is a scheme—
- (a) proposed by the local authority, or
  - (b) in relation to which it is notified under paragraph 1(1)(f)(iii) of schedule 2.
- (4) A local authority may remove information from its register relating to a scheme if the scheme is rejected under paragraph 4(1)(b), 7(4)(c) or 9(1)(c) of schedule 2.
- (5) A local authority must amend its register to reflect any decision of a sheriff under paragraph 12(7) of schedule 2 to quash a scheme recorded in its register in whole or in part.
- (6) Where a local authority enters information in its register about a scheme in relation to which it notified another local authority under paragraph 1(1)(f)(iii) of schedule 2, it must notify that authority of the information entered.
- (7) A local authority must make available its register for public inspection and may charge a reasonable fee for doing so.

(1) A sheriff or justice of the peace may by warrant authorise any person entitled to exercise a right conferred by section 79 to do so, if necessary using reasonable force, in accordance with the warrant.

(2) A warrant may be granted under subsection (1) only if the sheriff or justice is satisfied, by evidence on oath—

(a) that there are reasonable grounds for the exercise of the right in relation to the land concerned, and

(b) that—

(i) the conditions in subsection (3) are satisfied,

(ii) the land is unoccupied, or

(iii) the case is one of urgency.

(3) The conditions mentioned in subsection (2)(b)(i) are—

(a) the person applying for the warrant has given notice under section 81(3) of the person's intention to exercise the right,

(b) the notice period has expired,

(c) either—

(i) permission to exercise the right in relation to the land has been refused, or

(ii) such a refusal is reasonably expected.

(4) A warrant granted under this section—

(a) does not entitle a person to use force against an individual, and

(b) continues in force until the purpose for which the warrant was issued has been fulfilled or, if earlier, the expiry of such period as the warrant may specify.

(5) Any person who, without reasonable excuse, prevents or obstructs any other person from doing anything which is authorised by a warrant granted under this section commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.

83 Compensation: supplementary

- (1) In section 82, a person sustains damage if—
- (a) the value of the person's interest in land has been depreciated, or
  - (b) the person has been disturbed in the person's enjoyment of land.

(2) SEPA or, as the case may be, a local authority must pay compensation under section 82 to a person only if—

- (a) the damage is not attributable to an act or omission of the person,
- (b) the act or omission causing the damage would have been actionable at the person's instance if it had been done or omitted otherwise than in exercise of statutory powers,
- (c) the person gives notice to SEPA or, as the case may be, the local authority of the person's claim stating the grounds of the claim and the amount claimed, and
- (d) the notice is given no later than the earlier of—
  - (i) 2 years after the depreciation first becomes apparent or, as the case may be, the first occurrence of the disturbance, and
  - (ii) 10 years from the completion of the scheme operations, maintenance, exercise of a right of entry or, as the case may be, exercise of another function mentioned in section 82.

(3) Subsection (2)(b) does not apply where the damage has been sustained in consequence of circumstances falling within section 82(2)(e).

(4) Any question of disputed compensation under section 82 is to be determined by the Lands Tribunal for Scotland.
